#WASTETOPRODUCTS

Program

Is it possible to develop environmental and economical sustainable bio-based products from waste in Portugal?

What are the potentialities? What are the barriers?

The BIOVOICES Project, funded by the European Union's Horizon 2020 Research and Innovation programme, and the Biobridges Project, funded by the Bio-Based Industries Joint Undertaking, will try to answer these questions, give inspiring examples and ask the audience for potential success stories during the National Workshop #WasteToProducts, hosted by Wastes2019.
